Some of the good cows in the Hugh W. Moore & Son Herd, Jerseyville, Ill. They are selling a bull and female in this sale.

The "Best of Midwest" Sale is now in its fourth year. The strength of consignments and the prices paid in previous sales indicate that this event has met with industry approval. This has become one of the important regional sales of the breed.

This year an unusually strong offering is being presented by leading breeders from six states. A wealth of imported blood is a feature along with an impressive list of 1963 show winners.

THIS IS THE SALE for those interested in adding strength to their herds. Good pedigrees and good cattle will be featured. All of you will want to attend the Leveldale Investment Sale the day before . . . an event no one can afford to miss. Stay over an extra day and help yourself to the buying opportunities that will be presented in this excellent sale offering.

WYNDSTONE GOLDEN CHARLOCK 6TH — Was second top selling heifer in the 1955 Glenburn sale at $1,300 going to HiHo Farm. We sold a heifer out of her last year in the Best of Midwest sale to Kar-Burn Farms. She later topped their spring sale at $1,000. Her January 1963 heifer has done well for us this summer; fourth at Ozark; fourth at Missouri State Fair; first at DuQuoin State Fair. We sincerely feel this is one of the better cows to sell this fall. She will be right up to calving to Glastullich Gold.

E L ROSEWOOD 32nd — This is one of our good daughters of Phopachy Huntsman, a son of Kirkton Baronet. She is a particularly pleasing dark red cow that had six calves for us and will have her seventh to the service of Elmcrest Diadem, the 1961 International junior champion, the forepart of December. We are hesitant to part with any more daughters of Huntsman as we have found that they nick particularly well with our bulls. She should have a wonderful calf to this service.
